Claire's Hair Clips

Claire's Hair is centered around a young African-American girl who is not afraid to show her pride for her hair. She exudes confidence and excitement. Pride and self-worth is something that girls of color must learn at a young age and this is the very type of self-affirmation that will make an impression on your daughters, nieces, granddaughters, etc. and it will show them that beautiful hair doesn't come in only one texture. It also highlights a variety of skin tones within the black race. If you love your hair as much as Claire does, or if you want to teach your little girl to love her hair, no matter what society says, this diverse book is for you!

What a fun book with a strong message! Cassandra Bowen has done a marvelous job addressing adversity through Claire's Hair. Claire is an African-American girl who loves her hair and the diversity of it. She can hold it up in two puffs, braid it, or simply wear it out. Although the book is centered on Claire's hair it teaches a strong message about self-acceptance and self-awareness. This is a fun easy to read book with wonderfully illustrated pictures!

Claire's Hair Jewelry

Simply written

This book was beautifully illustrated and I like the simplicity of the words that will help us to appreciate and I like the diversity of hair styles.

As an elementary teacher in an urban school district I can attest that hair is big concern to young black girls. "Claire's Hair" helps to show that young girls should be proud of their hair, and relish in the uniqueness. The book has a well-done rhyme scheme, great illustration, and is a perfect book for read-alouds and beginner readers. Well done.
