Wrapped In Red Lyrics

Ruby Greer needed a job and when she saw an ad at Cherry Point Marine Base for a full time babysitter, she took the entire ad with her and headed to the address. At the house close to the sand dunes of Crystal Coast North Carolina, she found Lieutenant Colonel Byron Keats and his three-month-old baby son Jason. The man was as straight laced as they came and after one look at her, he was willing to send her packing. Ruby was accustomed to being judged by her looks, a tattoo sleeve on her arm and a love of rock music generally didnâ€™t make people think she was qualified. But after pointing out her experience and the fact that he was flying blind as a new father, she got the job.

Wrapped In Red Kelly

She certainly didn't expect to have an attraction for the older man. The way he kissed and things he made her feel was new exciting and she craved more. Ruby wanted to help him see the joys in life, a life with her. Byron was already doubtful, about the age difference and when her family made an appearance. She almost ran away. This time it was Bryon who stood with her and wanted her to fight for what they created, fight for their love. Ruby was ready to make the choice to follow her heart. But if she succumbed to the pressure of her family, she may under her father's rules once again. Byron gave her his love and shared his son with her. Ruby didn't want to be the one who broke his heart.

Lieutenant Colonel Byron Yeats is a single father stationed at Cherry Point was in need of a qualified nanny to care of his baby son, Jason. The mother of his child gave birth to his son in a hospital and took off. Feisty Ruby finds Byron's job posting and immediately goes to his home for an interview. She's offered the job with very little reservation because she was noticeable good fit with lovable lil' Jason.

Ruby and Byron are like night and day but were still attracted to each other but pet Lieutenant Colonel Byron Yeats is a single father stationed at Cherry Point was in need of a qualified nanny to care of his baby son, Jason. The mother of his child gave birth to his son in a hospital and took off. Feisty Ruby finds Byron's job posting and immediately goes to his home for an interview. She's offered the job with very little reservation because she was noticeable good fit with lovable lil' Jason.

Ruby and Byron are like night and day but were still attracted to each other but petty thinking got in the way! Byron was concern about their 15 year age difference and what people thought about it. Well Ruby could care less about what others thought and bagged back til it took Byron's sister, Liz to tell him how he looked at Ruby when no one was watching and to go for what he wanted and live!

This was a really inspiring and cute story about life lessons of living for yourself and not parents as well as living to love that right person with being concern of insignificant outsiders as well as family who pushes a careers on you whether you're happy or not. I love how in the end, Ruby's mother came around and told her the story of how she was broken down by her husband, Ruby's father and it became clear why Ruby could live up to her folks standards. She had to live for herself to really be happy!

I hope Ruby's shy sister, Janelle gets a story too!

I always enjoy reading Dahlia Rose's story because there is always a beautiful moral to the story!

4 enjoyable stars **** ...more

Wrapped In Red Gala 2019

Fabulous

Loved the book from beginning to end. Loved how the relationship developed. The next book should be about the sister meeting a Marine while touring.

GREAT story!!!!

Wrapped In Red Tape

A Sweet Romance

An easy flowing love story that is to the point and convincing. Had me captivated and entertained throughout.

Not the typical, Nanny sleeps with the boss on the first day or week, which I appreciated. I liked the honesty the characters portrayed, especially the Heroine who for the most part spoke her mind and not just keep it in her head, I appreciated that too.

I would definitely recommend this book. Thank You D R ðŸ˜•

I liked that the characters were the kind of people you could meet in real life; a single dad, a woman with tats, a military man (depending on where you live) and down to earth people you can relate to on some level. I could relate to the leading lady for some parts and loved her ability to really care about the baby boy and his father. She was smart and a spitfire on some level. It was a good story. It needs edits but I found it okay to sit back and read.

Wrapped In Red By Kelly Clarkson

Very Nice!

I love how Dahlia Rose writes her military stories. This one earned four stars due for the typos that were distracting. Ruby is a fighter and awed her way to freedom from an oppressive and an abusive family life.

Byron was serving his country while raising his son. Some inconsistencies about his being a Marine and an officer but a strong alpha male.

A worthy read. Job well done Ms. Rose. Just kick up the editing and proofreading a peg or two.

Wow

Awesome, I couldn't put it down, I would recommend it to anyone, it was that good. The female character held my attention.

Wrapped In Red Gala Cleveland

Twist and Shout

A short read. Very cute. I love military men. I loved that she followed her heart and broke away from a toxic family before it was too late.

Nice read

I chose 4 stars due to poor editing. If edited properly, then all 5. Decent story and plot. Easy read.

Wrapped In Red Fanfiction

Excellent read!

Enjoyed this story with its awesome storyline, interesting characters and the chemistry was hot. This story was different. The heroine was a free spirit and the hero had her back 100%. I adored them both.

Love of a woman or a good man can do wonders.

Byron needed the love of a good fun loving woman to start enjoying life again. Ruby needed the freely given love of a good man to be free of her bad past.
