Amazon.com: Long Way Down (9781481438254): Jason Reynolds ... Long Way Down is written in verse-form, and although this style is usually not my preferred style, Jason Reynolds set a completely new standard with his writing, eloquence and articulation. He manages to deliver clear, distinct and important messages with just a few words.

Long Way Down by Jason Reynolds, Paperback | Barnes & Noble® Long Way Down explores the perpetuation of a cycle of violence and the theme of revenge. Compare the development of these themes in Reynolds's novel to a classic revenge story like Romeo and Juliet, Hamlet, The Iliad, or The Count of Monte Cristo. A Long Way Down (2014) - Rotten Tomatoes "A Long Way Down" doesn't bother to explore its characters on any substantial level and comes close to offending in how flippant the whole thing is to the subject of suicide. Long Way Down by Jason Reynolds - Goodreads Long Way Down is a novel written in verse that tells the story of fifteen-year-old Will who seeks to avenge his murdered brother Shawn. But as he takes the elevator down, with a gun tucked in his pants, it stops on each floor and a ghost from Will's past enters, all victims of gun violence, but will that be enough to change his mind ?.
